Contest Rules:

Print and digital photos are welcome. Each entry must be accompanied by the form on this page or a digital entry form available at www.pacificfishing.com by clicking on "Photo contest."

For prints

Prints must be at least 4" by 6". Please write your name on the back of the print and the specific number of the print you're entering. (For example, if you are entering a total of five prints, and the specific print is the third in the series of five you are entering, write "John Doe 3/5." Remember to fill out an entry form for each print. We will not return prints, so make duplicates. You may enter digital scans from photo prints.

For digital images

Enter digital images via e-mail, only one entry per message. For each digital photo entry, download and complete a digital entry form found at www.pacificfishing.com. Attach one entry form per e-mail. In the subject portion of the e-mail, write your last name and the specific number of the print. (For example, if you are entering five digital images, and the specific image is the fifth in a series of five you're entering, write "John Doe 5/5.")

We must receive entries by Oct. 15, 2009

Photos must be taken in Alaska. Photos must show a legal activity. Entrants may enter only photos they have taken.

All photos that have been published or are under consideration for publication are ineligible.

All entries become the property of the Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute, Pacific Fishing magazine, and Alaska Airlines. The photos will help promote Alaska, Alaska seafood, and the people who make the seafood possible.

Some restrictions apply to prizes offered in this contest.

By entering the Take Your Best Shot photo contest, you affirm that you are following the rules of this contest.

Digital requirements

All digital images must be in a high-resolution format. That means they must have at least 300 dots per inch (dpi). See your camera's owner manual. You can scan photo prints and enter digital images of them. These scans must be at least 300 dpi. See your scanner's owner manual.
